GOV. COX GIVEN CORDIAL WELCOME BY WASHINGTON

Democratic Nominee is Greeted by Thousands

WILSON TODAY

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The national capital gave a cordial welcome today to Governor Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, upon his arrival for a conference tomorrow at 1:30 p. m., with President Wilson.

Met at the station by Franklin D. Roosevelt, his running mate, and other prominent Democrats, several thousand persons cheered and almost stampeded Governor Cox toward his hotel. He shook hands with scores, posed for moving picture men and was greeted by many while en route to the home of former Representative T. Ansberry of Ohio, his host while here. Today Governor Cox talked over campaign questions with several party spokesmen and will see others tomorrow before leaving at 4:50 p. m. for Columbus.

The league of nations and other international questions, Governor Cox told newspapermen, will be the principal issues discussed with President Wilson.

International Question

"The president knows more about international affairs than any one I know and I am here to counsel with him," he said. "It will be the first time that I have seen him since his illness but our relations have always been very cordial."

Asked if he would discuss prohibition with Senator Sheppard of Texas, the governor replied: "I wouldn't be surprised if the conversation should drift that way."

Another conference was with Victor Murdock of the federal trade commission. The governor would not go into details regarding the information he wished from Mr. Murdock but said it referred to the high cost of living, profiteering and other subjects.

He reiterated that he would go into every state and said specifically that he expected to visit the southern states.

Until he meets the national committee Tuesday at Columbus, Governor Cox said he could not announce his traveling plans more definitely. No arrangements, he added, have been made with Mr. Roosevelt for division of territory.

"I plan to start very soon after the ceremony of notification," he said. "I expect this will be in the early part of August, but of course the members of the national committee may have other ideas and I will respect their suggestions."

He said he hoped and expected President Wilson would aid materially in the campaign, adding: "If not by speeches, by statements."

Watches Congressional Fight

Governor Cox is taking an interest in the congressional fight and will confer tomorrow with Representative Flood of Virginia, chairman of the Democratic congressional committee.

Governor Cox asked that attention be called to the fact that the Democratic national committee would meet Tuesday at Columbus instead of Dayton.

Governor Cox and Senator Hitchcock, after a brief conference tonight, declared they were in perfect harmony on the league of nations. Senator Hitchcock said the governor's views also were in accord with those of the president and expressed the opinion that all the Democratic leaders would be in accord with the governor.

Senator Sheppard, leader of the dry forces in the senate, declared after a five minute talk with Governor Cox that he was perfectly satisfied with the governor's stand on the prohibition question and that he not only would support him, but would take the stump for him.

Commenting on the action taken by the federal authorities, J. N. Kenna, United States attorney, said, "the warrants were taken under direct instructions from the department of justice."

FINAL TOUCHES PUT ON SPEECH OF ACCEPTANCE

Sen. Harding Plans for Few Days of Recreation

FEELING "TIRED AND CROSS"

MARION, O., July 17.—Senator Harding gave his speech of acceptance of the Republican nomination today and then prepared for a day of complete rest. He planned to spend tomorrow very quietly and in the early days of the coming week to take more time for recreation.

He said tonight he was feeling "tired and cross" from want of exercise.

The speech to be delivered here next Thursday at the formal notification of his nomination exceeds in length his expectations and will run well beyond the four column limit he originally fixed. It has been prepared with particular care because he regards it as an important milestone in his campaign and has endeavored to have it express his stand comprehensively on all important issues.

Speculation of those close to the nominee swung today toward the possible significance of the meeting tomorrow between Governor Cox and President Wilson. It was a persistent topic of conversation among local Harding managers tonight for they expected it to put the spotlight again on the league of nations and perhaps show up more clearly what lines the campaign on that issue will follow.

Harding Interested

Senator Harding himself had nothing to say about the conference that he did not conceal his interest in it. It was said any public expression from him regarding the league or other important campaign issues probably would wait until notification day. His close advisers are said to have counseled that course especially regarding the league, urging that he stand on his recent statement that President Wilson had forced Governor Cox to take his cue on the treaty issue from the administration.

The Harding partisans argue that the logical result of the whole house conference will be to develop definitely whether Governor Cox will stand with the president regarding the league or with the Democratic senators and others in the party who have advised acceptance of the Republican reservations. They count on Mr. Wilson to use his influence for complete vindication of the administration and to take it for granted those who disagree with the president may of whom supported Governor Cox at San Francisco will bring pressure to bear in the opposite direction. Whatever the decision, the Harding men declare, the result will be to widen the breach over the treaty within the Democratic party. They assert that the Republican candidate would profit if the Democratic nominee either broke with the president or disappointed his advisers of opposite convictions.

Awful Slaughter

VERSAILLES, July 17.—(By Associated Press).—"A threat to drive the Turks from Europe once and for all," was contained in the allied reply to the Turkish objections to the peace treaty delivered here at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Such action might follow Turkey's refusal to sign the treaty or her failure to give it effect, the reply states.

The Turks were informed that they must make known their decision within ten days. If by midnight on July 27, they were told, they had not signified their willingness to sign the peace treaty, "the allied powers will take such action as they may consider necessary in the circumstances."

Turkey Responsible

The reply says the Turkish government would appear to think its responsibility in war is less than that of its allies and that Turkey therefore is entitled to lenient treatment, but the allies cannot accept that plea. The note maintains "Turkey entered the war without a shadow of excuse, and by closing the Straits, certainly prolonged the war by not less than two years and caused loss to the allies of thousands of lives."

Continuing, the note says:

"The history of the relations between the Porte and the great powers for a long period before the war was one long story of repeated, unavailing attempts to put an end to atrocities in Bulgaria, Macedonia, Armenia and elsewhere."

As to Constantinople being left as the capital of Turkey, the allies say they have grave doubts as to the wisdom of this in view of the misuse made by the Turks of their power in the past.

THE PUBLIC INTEREST

The bad effects of the Chicago street car strike have been practically nullified altho the business agent who called the strike is still defiant. In the earlier days of the struggle both parties to it declined to arbitrate.

It is disputes of this kind with attendant inconveniences that, when there is no compulsory arbitration when the rights of the public are so vitally at stake.

A MATTER OF COURTESY

Senator Harding has invited all of the men who were present at the Republican convention to attend the notification ceremonies at Marion. This may be called a tactful action on the nominee's part but it is doubtful if the "also rans" who attend the ceremonies will be in especially happy frame of mind.

They will conceal their feelings but will hardly be able to forget what fine settings their own home towns would furnish for such a ceremonial.

AFTER YEARS OF SERVICE

A great deal of public sentiment is being shown for veteran postal employees who are being relieved from service under orders of the postmaster general. True, these retiring workers will be eligible to pensions, but these pensions are not of sufficient amount to keep them comfortably in these days of high living costs.

Most of them want to continue work, at least for a few years longer. When the kind of service that most postal employees give, and the pay they receive is considered, the requests of these veteran workers are only reasonable.

MET MANY DEATHS

Don't be too sorrowful about the story that members of the Russian czar's family were burned to death after he had been executed. According to the stories published from time to time during the past two years, both the czar and the members of his family must have been tortured to death in a half dozen different ways.

All the stories can't be true and the fate of Nicholas and his family seems to have been a favorite theme of the romancers.

THE PROHIBITIONIST ROLE

W. J. Bryan and Billy Sunday are talked about as nominees for the prohibition party. They are both too wise to accept such a nomination. The prohibition party movement this year will not take on the importance of former years for most of the leaders in that party movement believe that the main object has been accomplished with the adoption of the 18th amendment. Then they see that by pushing the program this year they would be playing into the hands of the Democrats.

MR. FORD AS A COAL OPERATOR

Henry Ford has purchased a big mining property in Kentucky. It remains to be seen whether the millionaire car manufacturer is purposing to make certain a supply of fuel for his plants at fair costs, or whether he is going into the coal business.

Everything that Ford touches in a business way prospers and the chances are that he will make a success as a coal operator. When he gets a little experience in the business perhaps he can lead the way in showing the government and the public how the coal business should be regulated.

Blessings.

I have so many blessings I cannot count them all, and Fortune's soft caressings upon me daily fall, the sun is busy shining, all clouds have silver lining; yet I find time for whining and putting up a bawl. It takes a lot of hunting to find a good excuse for weeping like the deuce; but I am most persistent; though sorrow may be distant and almost non-existent, I'll rope it with a noose. I've all a guy could wish for I've health and roubles too; the fame I used to seek for now spreads to far Wahoo! done are the strife and straining, sweet boons are on me raining; and still I sit complaining, and raise a howdydo. My car is out of kilter, it seems to lack the power; the milkman ought to filter his juice—it's turning sour; the man who sells me berries and pies and pink canaries—his system never varies he sings me every hour. For these and other reasons I sob beside the sea, although, throughout the seasons, the gods are good to me; their gifts they are bestowing, their goodness ever growing; and still, my teardrops flowing, I moan, "Oh, hully chee!"

POST OF HONOR FOR WELL KNOWN NURSE

(From St. Louis Globe)
Miss Julia Stimson of St. Louis yesterday was appointed by the Secretary of War in Washington to be superintendent of the Army Nurse Corps with the relative rank of a major.

Miss Stimson was superintendent of nurses at Barnes Hospital when America entered the war. She was made chief nurse of Base Hospital Unit 21 and went to France, where she was stationed for ten months at Rouen. She was then made chief nurse of the American Red Cross in Paris. Her duties included tours of inspection to the front and at the time of the signing of the armistice she was in charge of 21,000 Red Cross and army nurses.

She has received the Distinguished Service Medal and the British Royal Red Cross for her services during the war. Her present promotion places her in charge of all army nurses in the United States, numbering about 3,000, and of all American nurses in American hospitals at Brest, Vladivostok and Coblentz, numbering about 100.

The Chautauqua

A Community Success.

Our Chautauqua is an example of the value of community cooperation. Organized nine years ago, it was for a few years under outside management. When its management passed solely into local hands a deficit of about $900 went with it. The local management immediately commenced bettering the program and conveniences of the assembly. In a year or two the deficit was wiped out and now the association has a comfortable balance in the treasury.

The Directors give their time and attention to the chautauqua as a community service—each of them buys the tickets he and his family use and the free-list has been eliminated. Not a director profits a cent from the assembly—the secretary receives a small salary which does not begin to pay for the work he does.

The management aims to provide patrons with the best possible programs at the lowest charge so as to permit everyone to enjoy the assembly.

The program offered for this year cannot be excelled as a whole. Other chautauquas may have a more famous speaker or two, but comparison of programs will show that no other chautauqua provides such a well-balanced list of head-line attractions for ten days. If you doubt this just compare programs. And then, while you are comparing talent, look at the admission charges, and you'll find that no other assembly sells tickets at so low a price—even the little five-day Circuit Chautauquas get ten dollars, or more for season tickets. We boast or ought to boast our own communities—some of us boast things about home, we ought to have a right to boast about our chautauqua. We may not know it ourselves.

but others know that it is one of the best in America and it has this reputation over the country. Among the speakers this year are Senator Kenyon, Strickland Gillilan, Mrs. Olesen, H. L. Willett, Pussfoot Johnson and the Sadders, people you know, and there are Roy Smith, Rabbi Sternheim, H. L. Cope, H. C. Curbertson, F. L. Mulholland and others men you may not know by reputation, but all of them as good as the best. Among them are several of America's most famous humorists.

The music is furnished by the Beaumanoir Band a first class thirty piece concert band the Bohemian eight piece orchestra, which is one of the fine Hruby organizations, the Garner Jubilee Singers—a negro sextette of real musicians; Elmer Adams and his wonderful company; the Florentine Musicians, the Great Chicago Operatic Company, the best vocal company on the chautauqua platform, the Chautauqua Preachers' Quartet, who make records for one of the famous phonographs, the Welsh Glee Singers, a double male quartet, and our own Mrs. Helen Brown Read.

For those who love entertainment are J. S. Damron clay modeler, Miss Penick, reader and impersonator, Davis, musician, Miss Breed, the infinitely funny reader with Elmer Adams, Andrew Visocchi, the comical head of the Florentines, and Alice L. Schrode, the child entertainer in addition. These attractions make a magnificent program, but just for good measure, each evening program will conclude with a moving picture.

The morning program includes hand concerts, household science demonstration, patriotic lectures and Boys' and Girls' meets for organized play, competitive games and athletics.

All who join before adjournment at the next meeting will be listed as charter members. Blank applications will be found at the Kenlinger bank in Franklin and buttons indicating membership will also be found there. The initial cost is $3.25.

Franklin precinct was very largely represented in the war and there are scores of ex-service men living in that community.

Messrs. Rowe and Green found an interested group of veterans assembled to talk over Legion plans and numerous others who were not able to present sent messages indicating their interest.

OPPOSES CIVIL SERVICE RETIREMENT

President Does Not Believe Men in Good Physical Condition Should Retire if they Desire to Work.

Washington, July 17.—President Wilson is strongly opposed to retirement, under the civil service retirement law, of civil service employees who have reached the retirement age of 65 years, but are in good physical condition and desire to continue work. Secretary Tumulty said today the president had told cabinet members of his desire that they place a uniform interpretation on the measure which becomes effective July 22 and which some cabinet members have construed to provide arbitrarily for retirement of employees at the age of 65.

Post office employees probably will be more largely affected by the retirement measure than any other class of federal workers. It was announced at the post office department today that bureau chiefs and postmasters had been directed to place before the postmaster general all applications of superannuates for continuance in office with such recommendations as the bureau chiefs and postmasters desire to make.

A. P. MAN VIEWS YACHT RACE FROM SEAPLANE

Says Vessels Looked Most of Time Like Posing for Picture — Many Air Craft Over Course

From a Seaplane Over Racing Course, July 17.—(By The Associated Press.)—Viewed from the air, the race today between Shamrock and Resolute proved more picturesque than exciting. The clearest of blue skies, fading thru a haze of light mist into the deeper blue of the sea lent a lustre to the snowy white of the racers' sails which suggested two costly pearls on a background of velvet.

Seldom catching enough breeze more than a barely perceptible list, the two vessels seemed most frequently as fixed and motionless as if posed for a photograph. The seaplane in which The Associated Press correspondent was riding was one of the small swarm of such craft circling above the course over which the yachts were to race. Besides a dozen or more privately owned airplanes there was a flying boat or two and even a navy "blimp."

Neither yacht moved fast enough at any time to create a foamy streamer in its wake, altho the rapid motion of the airplane frequently made it seem that both vessels were traveling at a dizzy speed.

O'CONNELL BROTHERS RUN DOWN BY AUTO

Sons of Former Representative Daniel O'Connell Injured in Joliet — Believe Both are Seriously Injured.

JOLIET, Ill., July 17.—Joseph and Daniel O'Connell, 15 and 17 years old respectively, sons of the late Daniel O'Connell, former state representative from Kinsman, were seriously injured early this afternoon when struck by an automobile. While the police ambulance removed the boys to the home of their mother, Mrs. Catherine O'Connell, Peter Maycher, driver of the car, was brought to the police station for questioning. He was not held.

The O'Connell brothers, according to police reports, were sitting on a curb waiting for a street car. Maycher was driving east in Cass street. The street car was coming in the opposite direction. The boys are said to have started to cross the street to board the car and walked directly in the path of the oncoming automobile.

Both victims suffered body bruises and according to members of the family are more seriously injured than was at first believed. Dr. John P. Benson is making an examination to determine the nature of the injuries.

S. S. ASSOCIATION PLANS BIG MEETING

Committee Will Select Meeting Place — Franklin or Woodson Favored.

A meeting of the Morgan County Sunday School association was held in the basement of the Ayers National bank yesterday afternoon to make the preliminary plans for the county convention which will be held this fall, the place and time has not yet been selected, although Franklin and Woodson have been suggested for the meeting place and September 9 and 10 as the date. This matter was left to the executive committee, W. H. Crum, J. S. Findley and C. O. Bayha.

The association extended a vote of thanks to the finance committee which had managed the business at the state convention so successfully that there was a surplus left to be prorated among the contributing Sunday schools. Rev. W. E. Spoons, A. A. Curry and Arthur Swain were appointed to arrange a program for the convention, it is understood that the pastors of the entertaining churches will be ex-officio members of this committee. Suggestions as to what subjects should come before the convention should be handed to Rev. Spoons the chairman of the committee.

Arthur Swain was appointed to study the conditions in the country and bring a report to the convention on the redistricting of the country.

The association will have a tent at the chautauqua this year. It will be provided by W. H. Crum and the literature will be secured from the state association.

Those present at the meeting Saturday afternoon were: Carl Weber, J. S. Findley, Rev. W. E. Spoons, Mrs. R. R. Stevenson and Mrs. Charles Honner, all of Jacksonville; W. H. Crum of Litchberry; A. A. Curry of Pisgah; J. W. Shults of Chapin, and J. F. Cunningham of this city.

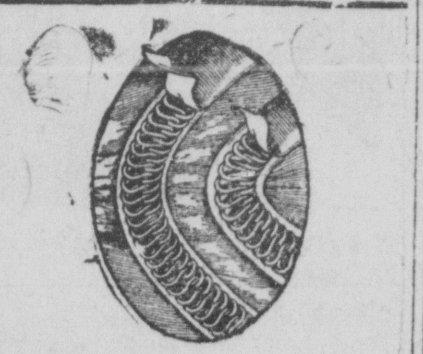

E. B. Harris and Robbie Rhodes who have been visiting for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Runkle and family, 741 East Chambers street, left yesterday for their home in Little Rock, Ark.

JOB COATES LEFT EXTENSIVE HOLDINGS

Will Filed Saturday Distributes Estate Among Heirs at Law—Owned Six Hundred Acres of Land—J. Weir Elliott and R. C. Reynolds Executors.

The will of the late Job Coates was filed Saturday for probate in the office of County Clerk G. L. Riggs. Practically all of Mr. Coates' extensive property is left in the hands of J. Weir Elliott and Richard C. Reynolds as executors and trustees. After providing for the funeral expenses and for the maintenance of a cemetery lot and making one or two other bequests, Mr. Coates provided for the converting of his property into cash and a division of the proceeds among his heirs at law, who are in this instance nieces and nephews. He bequeathed the sum of $1,000 to his housekeeper, Miss Sue Dickinson. Mr. Coates owned a splendid farm of 240 acres located a short distance north of Orleans, and other farm of 160 acres situated south of Pisgah and a third farm of 200 acres in the same locality. All of the farms are fertile, high class land. The estate is valued at somewhere about $250,000.

It was stated by one of the executors Saturday that it is the intention to proceed at once with the sale of the land and that it will probably be offered at public auction some time in the month of September. The local descendants of Mr. Coates who as heirs at law will receive shares in the estate are Mrs. Lillie Moody, Mrs. Clara Morris, Mrs. Rosa Schindler, Miss Rebecca Coates, Robert Coates and Prince Coates. A larger number of nieces and nephews are resident in England.

Language of the Will.
The text of the will which was drawn in August, 1919, is as follows: "I, Job Coates, do hereby bequeath and all my just debts be fully paid by my executors hereinafter named and I will and direct that my said executors cause to be erected upon my burial lot a suitable monument to mark my last resting place.

I give and bequeath to my said executors and the survivor of them as trustees the sum of $2,000 the same to be held by them and their successors in trust in perpetuity upon trust as follows: A. Upon trust: To invest and keep the same invested in U. S. government bonds or other safe securities.

B. Upon trust: To expend the net annual income to be derived from said trust fund in the care, upkeep and adornment of my burial lot and monument in perpetuity.

C. Upon trust: To transmit and transfer the said trust fund unimpaired to their successors in trust to be appointed by them or the survivor of them by proper instrument in writing or by the last will of the survivor of them, the successors in trust so appointed to appoint their successors in trust in the same manner in perpetuity. And in the event that by death, resignation or other causes there shall at any time in the future be no proper trustee or trustee in charge of said trust fund, then any judge of any court of record in Morgan county, Ill., shall appoint two proper persons trustees and the persons so appointed shall be trustees under this will with all the powers and duties given to and imposed upon the said trustees by this item of my will.

III.
I give and bequeath unto Susan H. Dickinson the sum of $1,000 as a token of my appreciation of her kindness and care.

IV.
All the balance and remainder of the estate of which I may die seized, real personal and mixed of what kind and nature so ever and wherever situated, I give, devise and bequeath unto my executors hereinafter named and the survivor of them as trustees and upon trust as follows:

1. Upon Trust: To sell, convey, dispose of, collect and convert the same into cash as soon after my death as may conveniently be done; Hereby giving my said executors full power to sell and convey any and all of the real estate of which I may die seized.

2. Upon trust: Having so converted said trust estate into cash to divide and distribute the same among those persons who at the date of my death would be heirs at law under the statutes of descent of the state of Illinois, if I had died intestate, such distribution and division to be made in the same proportion as the same would have been distributed among them under the laws of descent if I had died intestate.

I hereby make, constitute and appoint J. Weir Elliott and Richard C. Reynolds and the survivor of them executors and executor of this my last will and testament and direct that they or either of them be not required by the court to give any bond or security as executors or executor. And it is my will that should one of the said executors die or refuse to serve or resign then the other shall be sole executor and shall have all the power and perform all the duties of executor and trustee under this will.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set hand and affixed my seal this 4th day of August, 1919.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Job Coates as and for his last will and testament in the presence of us, who in the presence of each other and at his request, has subscribed our names as witnesses. And we certify that at the time he executed his will the testator was of sound mind and under no constraint.

AN OBJECT LESSON.
A short time ago it was announced that no more fishing would be permitted in Nichols park or Mauvaisterre lakes this season. This was at the suggestion of the fish commissioner who put the fish into the lake. The park board didn't like to deprive people of fishing and instead of forbidding the sport merely asked that all small fish taken be returned to the water but it has not been done. Yesterday morning the writer was out at the park and saw lying dead a lot of fish about three inches long, strung on a string and thrown away.

When people are so abusive of a privilege offered them they must be deprived of it and the innocent have to suffer with the guilty so there will be no more fishing allowed in either lake this year. Let the minnows have a chance to grow and possibly next year fishing will be permitted.

A MISSIONARY FROM CHINA.
Rev. E. A. Gish was a caller on some Jacksonville friends yesterday. The reverend gentleman is a missionary in the great city of Nanking, China, and is home on furlough, although it isn't much of a furlough for him as the board keeps him pretty busy visiting the churches in the interest of the great cause. His headquarters at present are in Eureka and from thence he goes as desired to various places to tell of the great work.

Nanking is one of the great historical places of China. It is where the Ming tombs are situated and are always an object of interest to tourists. The tombs are some distance from the city and the lavish emperor adorned the way to the last resting place of royalty with huge stone images of camels, elephants and all sorts of animals.

There too are the cells formerly used by students coming for examination for degrees and honors. The Chinese language is not spelled but has a character for each word and as many as forty thousand of these characters have been known to wise men of that country. There are 29,000 cells which are simply closets built against a wall and measure little more than three feet each way inside. They are supplied with a board for seat and another for table and in them the students were shut for days at a time. They had to come with certain degrees and the best were sent to Peking for still more tests. Some died, some lost their reason and many felled while the choicest were placed in high commands.

The matter has been abandoned for with the Boxer rebellion the Chinese found a many may know forty thousand characters but not be fitted for high office.

CANDIDATES FILED PETITIONS SATURDAY

Only Four Aspirants for Office Entered the Lists Saturday.

Saturday was the first day for filing petitions for county offices. The first placed upon record with County Clerk G. L. Riggs was that of Charles L. Hankins; who is seeking nomination for coroner on the Republican ticket. The next petition was that of Charles A. Rose, present incumbent, who seeks to succeed himself.

Hugh P. Green, who is a candidate for Republican nomination for state's attorney, was the third to file. The fourth petition came from Edward Kastrop, who is a candidate for senatorial committee, a position he has held for a number of years.

The petitions were numbered and the hour of filing placed upon them in the order of their receipt. A few years ago there was a good deal more stress placed upon the order of filing than is now true. It has sometimes happened that on filing day candidates for office would reach the court house door many hours before the time of opening. Other candidates will probably file within the next few days and it is expected that there will be increasing interest in political affairs during the next seven or eight weeks. The primary is to be held on Sept. 15.

lin, Concord and Waverly, in addition to the visits made in the Jacksonville territory. Metropolitan cases numbered 3; visits 7.

MR. HOCKENHULL HAS TRAVELED MUCH

Former Resident Has Had Active Career Since Leaving Jacksonville.

John Nelson Hockenull during the past week gave his Jacksonville friends the pleasure of meeting him again. It is somewhat over twenty years since he ceased to be a part of this community, in which he was born and raised, and where he had known and been known by many people.

These latter need scarcely be reminded of him as a member of the firm of Hockenull & Elliott, nor of his identification with the State Street and First Presbyterian churches, nor of his fine appreciation and understanding of music and musical affairs.

But Mr. Hockenull has been in various places and seen much of the world since giving up his residence in Jacksonville. He is naturally so quiet and retiring in disposition that even his best friends hardly realized his good qualities, thinking of him rather as a youth or young man than as a man of wide experience. Perhaps some of his experiences since leaving here have had to do with his present delightful bearing and understanding of the things he met in the world, when an observing person passes thru it.

After leaving here Mr. Hockenull spent some ten years farming in the beautiful and delightful region in New York state neighboring the eastern end of Lake Ontario. A gentleman traveled in Europe said years ago that there was nothing more attractive across the deep sea than the vicinity of Henderson Harbor, New York.

While a farmer, Mr. Hockenull found time to make two quite extended visits in England and in Europe. Of course it was easy for him to "do" England, by reason of his father's birth there and some relationships to it.

For several years past, Mr. Hockenull has been employed in the Wible glass works at Vineland, New Jersey, where of late he has been employment manager of some seven or eight hundred people, to the satisfaction of the proprietor.

He has not alone made his place there in business, but as an elder in the Presbyterian church he has had a higher part in the life of a remarkable town, one founded on the strong rock of Prohibition. Mr. Hockenull is now about to go to England where he has a business opening awaiting him in London.

WHAT DO YOU THINK I AM TRYING TO DO, ROB YOU? WELL I SHOULD SAY NOT. I AM YOUR FRIEND. I AM JUST TRYING TO KEEP YOU POSTED, LEST YOU FORGET. I KNOW THAT WHEN PEOPLE GET BUSY ON THE FARM, THAT THEY OVERLOOK SOME OF THE MOST IMPORTANT FACTORS PERTAINING TO THEIR BUSINESS. THE REASON I KNOW IS BECAUSE I HAVE FARMED AND AM A FARMER YET. I HAVE BEEN TELLING YOU THAT POWER FARMING IS THE MOST SUCCESSFUL WAY TO FARM THESE DAYS. THE NEW METHOD, THE NEW WAY THAT SPELLS POWER FARMING. WE USED TO USE WOOD-EN MOLD BOARDS ON our plows and WALK all day long. We also used OXEN to pull that plow. "Behold, old things have passed away and all things have become new." SCRIPTURE: The oxen were substituted with the HORSE, the MULE and the riding plow. "Behold, they are rapidly passing away and are being substituted by the TRACTOR, the GANG PLOW and all kinds of Power Farming." Now listen! When stacking and threshing is here and then comes the Fall plowing, and TAKE IT FROM ME if you want to be happy the rest of your days come in and let us reason together after which I am sure you will buy a Fordson Tractor and all the tools that go with it. Then you will be a Progressive Farmer. Will you do it?

the road when Welch approached. Welch turned out to pass the boy and supposed he had cleared him. However, the rear wheels of the car skidded and the boy was side-swiped and thrown into the ditch.

He sustained a fracture of two ribs, many bruises and it is feared there is a serious injury to the spine, besides internal injuries. Mr. Welch was enroute to Williamsport, Ind., from his home in Wichita, Kans., had his wife and two grandchildren in the car. He did not know he had struck the boy until apprised of the fact by the police here.

Immediately after the accident George Hedges, father of the injured boy, telephoned the police here to be on the lookout for an automobile carrying a Kansas license. Chief Kiloran with Patrolman Baker and McGinnis went out the Chapin road to await the car. The chief and Baker were at the Spaulding corner and McGinnis went on cut the road toward the old distillery site. He met the car at that point. Mr. Welch was greatly concerned when he heard of the accident and came to the city and awaited the arrival of the boy's father.

When Mr. Hedges arrived he had cooled off a little. At first he believed that Mr. Welch had struck the boy and had driven on to escape the consequences. However, when Mr. Hedges learned the true state of affairs he readily saw that it was one of those unavoidable accidents for which no one was to blame.

He arranged with Mr. Welch whereby the latter is to pay the doctor bills and other expenses. Then Mr. Welch proceeded on his way.

Dr. Evans of Bluffs was the first physician to reach the injured boy. He found his condition such that others were summoned for consultation. While it is not definitely known it is feared there is a fracture or dislocation of the spine.

RED CROSS HOME SERVICE TO MEN

A wide range of service is supplied to disabled veterans of the World War by the American Red Cross in the government's program for the rehabilitation of these men. Thru its Chapter and individual workers the Red Cross is in close touch with the men and is constantly in a position to advise them of what the government offers to restore them to useful stations in life, as well as to provide friendly assistance in manifold forms. Its assistance is also available to the Federal Board.

In virtually all of the fourteen district vocational offices established by the Federal Board thruout the United States, the Red Cross maintains trained workers, and in most of the schools and colleges where the men are in training, there is a Red Cross worker to look after their interests. In association with the district officers of the Board, the Red Cross is instrumental in various ways in locating the men who are eligible; in getting the message across to ex-service men who are not aware of the opportunities open to them; arranging for interviews between the men and the district officers; advising proper courses; and assisting in many matters incident to entering training, such as filling applications and adjusting claims and compensations.

Thru the efforts of the Red Cross Home Service workers who are in close touch with the families of ex-service men, many who would not otherwise have entered training, are persuaded to do so. Many times the Board refers to the Red Cross the names of men they cannot locate. In one locality the Red Cross learned of fifteen men whose medical reports the Federal Board had, but for whom no addresses were given. From the medical reports the Red Cross learned the places where the men were discharged, wrote to the Red Cross field directors in the various camps and finally obtained the addresses of virtually all of the men with the result the men are now in training.

There also is assistance given in matters of transportation and in expediting procedure so that men may enter training as soon as possible. In his home town, Home service is provided for a veteran's family, if necessary, and in the new community to which he goes, the Red Cross aids in establishing him in his school life. In one of the universities where there are a great many men under going vocational training there is a Red Cross Service office on the campus for the purpose of looking after the interests of the men.

A very valuable form of Red Cross Aid to these men established in training is opening clubs for groups of them in places where they are not adequately provided for in the college dormitories.

JACKSONVILLE AS SEEN BY A VISITOR

A young woman resident of Farmington, Mo., recently made a visit to Jacksonville and has sent to the Journal for publication a story of the visit in part as follows:

A few days since I was one of a party of autoists consisting of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Edwards and family and A. E. Mansfield of Athensville. Mr. Mansfield headed the car towards Jacksonville. We certainly were interested in the farms we passed. Eighty-acre corn fields with their dark green foliage contrasting with the gold of the large wheat fields is a common sight here, but it is enough to make the Farmingtonian pinch herself to see if she were dreaming. I noticed that the farm help problem is as serious a question as it is with us, and I'm afraid that the boys who have left the farms for the city will be coming back without any crowns in their hats and no patches for their elbows in a year or two, and contrary to their expectations will find nothing to eat until they raise it.

On reaching the outskirts of Jacksonville we found hundreds of automobiles parked on the roadside and in front of a plot of ground and on the plot a ball game in progress on Sunday afternoon. Possibly as Holy a way to keep the Sabbath as the way we were keeping it, but of course that was a different matter.

First we visited the State Hospital for the Insane. The main offices were all of the interior we saw. They are fitted out much more expensively and in grander style than our No. 4 at Farmington. The massive piles of buildings looked strange after being used to the more homelike cottages of our State Hospital.

We had views of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, Illinois Woman's college, Illinois college and other institutions of learning and hospitals. Jacksonville certainly is a city of schools and hospitals.

Leaving the city we motored to Diamond Grove cemetery, a beautiful and well kept grove with many fine and expensive monuments. Nichols park with its beautiful lake and white swans, monkeys and fine scenery, must be a refreshing place to the tired workers of Jacksonville and also a place for amusement to those who are so unfortunate as to have nothing to do.

Having refilled our gasoline tank we made a twilight drive home with the Farmingtonian much pleased with her views of the beautiful city of Jacksonville. A Missourian.

BURGLARS WERE BUSY SATURDAY MORNING

Several Residences Entered but Little of Value Secured—Bicycle Stolen from Front Porch

Burglars were busy in the city early Saturday morning when several reports came to the station of attempted burglaries. Where entrance was gained little of value was secured.

James Wall of 710 West College street reported burglars in his house about 4 o'clock Saturday morning. Nothing of value was secured as Mr. Wall was awakened and probably frightened the robbers away.

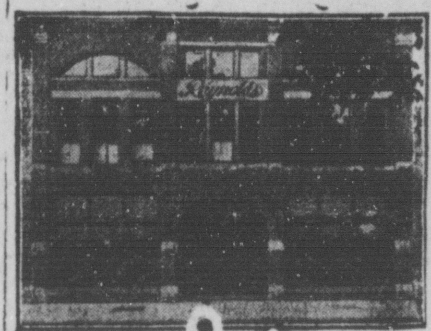

At the residence of Harry Benson, 803 West College avenue, burglars entered the rooms of Mr. and Mrs. John Knapp. There was a purse containing 75 cents in money and a watch. The thieves took the change and left the watch.

The police were summoned to the residence of the Misses Wardhaugh, 610 Jordan street. Here it was said burglars were trying to gain entrance to the house but were frightened away.

George Souza, 878 North Church street reported the theft of a bicycle belonging to his son from the front porch of the residence. This theft is thought to have occurred about midnight.

MYERS BROTHERS FACE INDEES TODAY

Springfield Team Here for Second Game—Defeated Locals Several Weeks Ago By Score of 4 to 2—Patrick Will Start Game.

Alfred Patrick will be on the mound for the Indies against the Myers Brothers of Springfield, when Umpire Ely calls "play ball" at South Side Park this afternoon.

Patrick has been under the weather for some time but is rounding to and believes he can go the route. If Pat gets in any kind of condition he should be able to trim any of the teams in this section. Anyway when he is on the hill the fans may rest assured he will be trying all the time.

The locals have lost the last few games by close scores and it is believed they are due to get back the old punch that wins ball games. Last Sunday the Indies had several chances to win, or at least to tie the score in the game with the Cleaners.

For the last three innings Dove was wavering and just one little knock would have sent him aviating and given the locals the game. The punch was lacking. However the past week Patrick has been giving his men some inside baseball and it is not probable there will be much bone headed baseball played by the Indies during the remainder of the season.

Manager Smith has been working on the grounds the past week and they will be in the best shape so far this season. With good weather prevailing there should be a large crowd out to see the clash this afternoon.

Myers Brothers will be without the services of Conroy who beat Jacksonville almost single handed on the occasion of the former visit of the team. In place of Conroy the visitors will have Moakley who is one of the best ball players in Springfield and a dangerous man with the war club.

The teams will lineup as follows:
Myers Brothers—Wilkin, lf; Griffin, 2b; Moakley, 1b; Moakley, ss; H. Ford, cf; W. DeFrates, 3b; Buehler, rf; Reifler, c; Jansen, p.
Indies—Denny, 3b; Wheeler, 1b; Ruble, 2b; Briggs, ss; Clark, cf; H. DeFrates, rf; Christopher, lf; Grady, c; Patrick, Riggs, Hamm, p.

A LETTER FOR WOMEN

From a Woman Whose Serious Illness Was Overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Garnett, Kas.—"I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a complete nervous breakdown following the birth of my oldest child. I got up too soon which caused serious female trouble. I was so weak that I was not able to be on my feet but very little and could not do my housework at all. I had a bad pain in my left side and it would pain terribly if I stepped off a curbstone. One day one of your booklets was thrown in the yard and I read every word in it. There were so many who had been helped by your medicine that I wanted to try it and my husband went to town and got me a bottle. It seemed as though I felt relief after the second dose, so I kept on until I had taken five bottles and by that time I was as well as I could wish. About a year later I gave birth to a ten pound boy, and have had two more children since and my health has been fine. If I ever have trouble of any kind I am going to take your medicine for I give it all the praise for my good health. I always recommend your medicine whenever I can."

—Mrs. Eva E. Shay, Garnett, Kansas.

Mr. Murray, who has always had a kind interest in the farmers of this vicinity, worked out this problem himself, at some trouble and naturally feels glad of the deal.

MONEY SAVED BY BUYING HERMAN'S LADIES' GARMENTS AND MILLINERY DURING JULY CLEARANCE SALE.

SUCCESSFUL ALFALFA RAISING

How many times in the past it has been the sentiment that if a boy was good for nothing in every occupation, put him on the farm for he could hold a plow anyhow and get along somehow.

That might have done when land was ten to twenty dollars an acre and good prairie at that but these days it will hardly answer and it has been discovered that brains and education pay just as well on the land as anywhere else.

A conspicuous example of this is the experience of J. D. Hembrough with alfalfa. He had a field of eleven acres, black prairie with a corner leaning toward gumbo. He tilled it five feet deep with five inch tile. For two years he grew corn on the field, each year cultivating it fourteen times so as to be sure that all weeds were killed. The year before it was in oats. The corn crops were spreaders he put ten loads of manure to each acre, broke up the ground early in May, plowing nine inches deep. About the middle of August he sowed the alfalfa but in the meantime he went over the field after each rain 25 times with pulverizer or harrow. He bought his seed of the Field Seed Co., of Shenandoah, Iowa, and used 25 pounds on the acre.

Before sowing he put the seed on a floor under cover, used a 32 can of nitrogen for each 25 pounds of seed, mixed the nitrogen with water and sugar, poured it on the seed, raked and shoveled it till each individual seed was coated and then sowed with a hand seeder. He divided the seed into row piles, sowed one-half north and south and one-half east and west. That year the crop grew six inches but it wasn't disturbed. Next spring it grew 42 to 51 inches high and the field yielded four cuttings. For eleven years the general average has been five tons to the acre and worth, before the world war twenty dollars a ton. Generally the cuttings have been three a year.

Alfalfa must be properly cured. If the weather be favorable, Mr. Hembrough cuts the crop in the morning, has a delivery rake, turns it often and hauls to the shed by night. It is all important not to let the crop sunburn for in that case the leaves become crisp and fall off destroying the cream of the hay.

Mr. Hembrough also has a novel manner of saving the crop when wet with rain. He has a large feeding shed left on which he places a layer of baled straw, no matter how old, a layer of wet alfalfa, a layer of straw and so on till the crop is laid away. The straw absorbs the good of the alfalfa and stock will eat it all.

One year a cutting looked rather small and short and a neighbor passing along the field remarked the fact, whereupon Mr. Hembrough offered him the cutting as it stood for fifty dollars. The man declined but said he would put it up on the halves which he did. He cut ten tons, and at that time his five tons were worth thirty dollars a ton. Mr. Hembrough rarely if ever sold any of the crop as it was so valuable to feed. He lived forty-one years on the ancestral farm, meantime acquiring much other land so that his five sons will be well started in life. He has retired to South Jacksonville and lets his land to some of his boys.

At present the field of alfalfa is largely running to blue grass, more than half, so now he pastures it a while in the spring, takes off the stock enough for a cutting of hay, pastures it some more, takes off the stock for a second cutting and then pastures it till winter. In this way he gets, as he estimates, as much pasture as from any field of so many acres on the farm, and in addition two tons of hay per acre worth now something like forty dollars a ton.

The actual experience of a man like Mr. Hembrough is worth a lot of theory. Certainly his eleven acre field has been a profitable one and the end is not yet.

Washington.—An "old horses' home" and a "vacation farm" for horses are both to be found on the hospitable acres of L. C. Probert, a Washington newspaper man, at "Homeland Farm," Olney, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Probert have for years been active members of the Washington Humane society. When Mr. Probert bought a farm recently they realized they had the opportunity to put some of their good wishes for dilapidated horses into practice.

Accordingly Mr. Probert has made a standing offer to take care of any horses condemned to die, so they may have a little idea of "horse heaven" before they go, and to give other tired animals the "vacation" that many owners nowadays are granting their horses with their employes.

INCREASE LENGTH OF LARGEST AIR GARAGE

Navy Department Orders Increase in Length of Mammoth "Air Garage" for Dirigible Balloons—Will Be Largest Hangar in World.

Lakehurst, N. J., July 17.—The Navy Department has ordered an increase of 200 feet in the length of the mammoth "air garage" for dirigible balloons which is being built here, it was announced today.

This hangar will be the largest in the world, big enough to hold two trans-Atlantic liners the size of the Leviathan. Plans for it originally were drafted when the Navy Department contracted for the R-38, a dirigible one-third larger than the R-34 which flew to the United States from England last year.

According to revised specifications, the hangar will be 1,000 feet long, 318 feet wide and 200 feet high. When completed, which probably will be next spring, the big "air garage" and its auxiliary power house, machine shops and officers' quarters will cost about $3,577,000, it was stated.

The hangar will have electrically operated double doors, 177 by 136 feet each, which when opened wide will with the width of the structure constitute a wind-break of nearly 600 feet.

Satisfactory progress has been realized to date in its construction, it was stated. The site has been cleared of pine and scrub oak stumps by two Marine Corps tractors, designed for hauling 7-inch guns thru Flanders mud but now operated as stump pullers. The foundation and bases for the steel arches of the roof have been laid and several arches mounted.

About 400 enlisted men and civilians are employed on the work, which is being performed under the Civil Engineers Corps of the Navy.

Was Unable to Walk Without Being Helped—Tallac Brings Back Health and Strength—Feels Better Than in Years.

"I am so thankful for what Tallac has done for me words fail to express my feelings" was the earnest statement made by G. P. Ross, 1101 Winter street, Pekin, Ill. Mr. Ross is manager of the Windsor Hotel, one of the leading hotels of Pekin, and is widely known.

"I had been sick so long and suffered so much that it seems almost too good to be true that Tallac has so thoroughly relieved me of my troubles. Twelve years ago I began to have rheumatism and from that time on until I began taking Tallac there was never a minute of my life I was not in more or less pain. It was in every joint of my body, but gave me more trouble in my arms and legs than anywhere else. For the last two years I have been almost entirely helpless. Why, I couldn't even lift a knife and fork without its causing me pain and I couldn't walk at all without help. My kidneys also bothered me a great deal, and there were such severe pains across the small of my back that at times when I moved I would almost cry out loud. I was in such misery all the time I could not get but little sleep and in the mornings I was so stiff and sore I could hardly get out of bed. It was all I could do to put on my clothes, and when I got through dressing I would ache for hours. I finally got so bad off it was impossible for me to attend to my duties around the hotel and I just had to give up entirely."

"I had tried so many different treatments and medicines without getting any relief that I doubted whether anything could do me any good. However, I had taken Tallac only a short while before all my doubts were soon gone. As I kept taking it I kept getting better, until now the rheumatism has left me entirely, and I never have an ache or pain of any kind. My friends, who knew what a bad fix I was in and who now see me walking briskly down to my hotel every morning, stop me and ask what in the world has brought about such a change in me, and I am always delighted to tell them it was Tallac. To tell the truth, what Tallac has done for me seems almost beyond belief, for I haven't felt as well as I do now in twenty years."

Tallac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve, and by the leading drug stores in every town. (adv.)

Firestone Cushion Truck Tires

Many truck tire problems in many lines of business are answered by Firestone Cushion Tires.

They have added cushioning power needed for proper protection to your load and truck. They have the wearing strength needed for maximum mileage.

12% to 27% More Rubber

Firestone Cushion Tires have a greater volume of material. That is one reason why they ride easier. It is obvious, too, that this means longer wear. The extra wide tread provides approximately 20% more area of road contact—giving firmer traction under all conditions.

300% More Efficient in Heat Radiation

Overheating is a common danger to truck tire equipment. But Firestone engineers have evolved this special Cushion shape that lessens the strain through a different flexing of the rubber and gives a greater surface for heat radiation.

Any Truck Immediately Equipped

Firestone Cushion Tires are built to fit any S. A. E. base. No wheel changes necessary. The nearest Firestone truck tire dealer can apply them to your trucks and trailers without delay or added expense.

If you want resiliency plus extra-long wear, and if you want the practical economy of most miles per dollar, put on Firestone Cushion Tires. Made in all sizes.

Farm Bureau Notes

Waverly Baby Beef Club—Last fall about 30 boys of Waverly vicinity enrolled in a baby beef club. The project was started by E. L. Dillions, teacher in agriculture in the high school. The project was financed by a local bank. The calves were bought by an experienced stockman. A number of the calves were seen recently. They now weigh close to the 900 mark. They expect to terminate the project with a show and sale September 2.

Pig Club News—The Morgan County Pig club now has 42 members. Leonore Pearson, Carl Hermes and a son of C. C. Woods of Waverly should be added to the list. The county agent recently inspected the pigs belonging to the members at Waverly and everything seems to be moving nicely. E. L. Dillon, teacher of agriculture, in the Waverly T. H. S. is looking after the work there.

Iowa 103 Oats—The county agent has recently inspected fields of this variety on the farms of Robert Ranson, C. H. Gibbs, Wm. G. Richardson, Harry J. Rice, Fred Hagen, Ed Pearson and R. S. Hamilton. As a whole the variety compares very favorably with other varieties. We are going to advise the wider use of this variety the coming season. It is certainly safe on strong land.

Horseshoe Pitchers—The I. A. A. is planning to have a picnic in Sangamon county on September 1. One feature will be a state horseshoe contest. Each county is invited to send two would be champions. If any Morgan county men want to enter the lists, we shall be glad to send in their names. We hope that two Morgan county men can be found who will have the grit to get into the game.

Alfalfa—Morgan county farmers will sow more alfalfa this fall. Where the land is properly limed, phosphated and worked down into a firm seed bed, and seeded with northern grown seed properly inoculated a good field is practically assured. We advised farmers who never tried to raise alfalfa as a crop to talk with some one who is making a success of the crop.

Sweet Clover—Sweet clover is getting a good start along Morgan county highways. It seems to crowd out weeds, hold banks from washing, and furnishes a supply of inoculated dirt to use when we want to sow alfalfa or sweet clover. Sweet clover adds more humus to the soil when plowed under than any other legume. Both the white blossom and yellow blossom have a good start and should be encouraged. Our railroads would look much better lined with sweet clover than with wild parsnip and various other unsightly weeds.

Sweet clover is the plant to use when we get to a point that we are willing to lime the soil and start on a rational scheme of soil rotation.

WOMAN

Your bodily and mental efficiency are important factors right now. It's no time to be sick. It's no time to allow your system to be drained of its vitality to such an extent that you can do only a part of the work demanded of you.

You can't be efficient if you are ill. So begin now to take steps to remove the cause that leads to these periods of intense suffering and accept the help of Chiropractic so you can be 100% efficient and vigorous.

Why Women Suffer

Most women suffer primarily from deranged function caused by spinal pressure on the nerves. This pressure shuts off, or obstructs, the life-giving nerve energy, and weakness and disease affect certain organs and tissues of the body. Chiropractic corrects these spinal defects, and thereby removes the cause of illness. Nature cures the effects and builds up the weakened and diseased organs. No drugs, no surgery are used.

CHIROPRACTIC THE BETTER WAY TO HEALTH

Nature's way. It is safe, sensible and sufficient as a national health method, and it has proven wonderfully effective in women's ailments. There is nothing in the chiropractic (Ki-prak-tic) method that should prove the least embarrassing. Investigate.
